A MESSAGE FROM FR. PARKS

Life as a Battle

Two of the most influential works of Western Civilization are "The Odyssey" and "The Iliad" by the Greek writer Homer. They are illustrative of the two great metaphors for life: The Odyssey explores life "as a journey", while the Iliad sees life "as a battle." The revelation of the Christian faith makes plain the battle of our lives. It is a battle between good and evil, between God and Satan, between the Spirit and the Flesh.

Lent is a season in which this aspect of the Christian life is at the fore. In our Gospel for the first Sunday of Lent, we read of Jesus being led by the Spirit into the desert to do battle. He enters a time of trial and testing. Unlike God's people Israel who were constantly failing the battles put before them, Jesus is victorious in his battle with Satan. What is key to this triumph, is that he accomplished it while sharing our human nature. In Christ, we can be victorious over Sin and evil as we are more conformed to his will.

Our weapons in this battle are the ancient practices of Prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Prayer is a remedy to our pride, fasting to lust and inordinate desire of the flesh, and almsgiving to our greed. Where in your life do you feel bound? Where in your life do you want "breakthrough", renewal and transformation? Ask the Holy Spirit to guide you this Lenten Season and tailor your penitential practices to what most needs Jesus' victory in your life.

The spiritual battle is real, but Jesus is with us and for us as we seek to grow in his love this Lent. As St. Paul relates, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

Peace of Christ,

Fr. Parks

ALL ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND OUR PARISH LENTEN RETREAT!

February 26 & 27 6-7:30 PM in the church
Speakers: Bishop Ronald Gilmore & Jacqueline Loh

Bishop Gilmore served as Bishop of Dodge City, Kansas from 1998-2011. He is a gifted homilist and is drawn to Carmelite Spirituality, contemplative prayer, the relationships between consolation and desolation in prayer, and the effect of the Enemy on our discernment. He is also a Spiritual director to many priests. He uses his experience and charisms of wisdom, and knowledge to counsel people to find a sense of purpose, especially in the golden years of their lives.

An accomplished writer, he has published four books: Another Way, Whispers from the Rooftops, Like the Dewfall and The Uncommandments of Growing Old.

Bishop Gilmore will celebrate our 11 AM Mass on Sunday, February 25th.

Monday, February 26 "The Tale of Grace: Resurrection"

Explore the mysteries of grace, feel the depth of emotion as the narrative unfolds, and brace yourself for the unexpected and undreamed-of gift in the silence of the tomb. This talk goes beyond us, offering an extraordinary journey of redemption.

Tuesday, February 27 "The Tale of the Stone: A Reflection on Life and Freedom"

The stone. It serves as a metaphor for the dual nature of hard things—they can both protect and harm. When we misuse the precious gifts of life and freedom, we encounter the weight of sin, the heaviest of all obstacles that hinders what should be happening.

OLOJ FINANCE COUNCIL

Mark Neagle, Sue Ellen Smith

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner—Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

"Souls that make an appeal to My Mercy delight me. To such souls I grant even more graces than they can ask. I cannot punish even the greatest sinner if he makes an appeal to My compassion, but on the contrary, I justify him in My unfathomable mercy."

Not going to confession frequently? Think you can go once or twice a year? The above are Jesus' words to St. Faustina. Does it sound like confession is for punishment? Guilt? Shame?
No, that is Satan's game, not Jesus' desire. Does it sound like Jesus is waiting to impose wrath? No, that is Satan's whisper in your ear. Satan is stealthy, alright, but don't you believe it. Your soul needs confession like your body needs food and water. Without frequent confession, your soul becomes emaciated. The only healing is confession. In fact, Jesus said the greater the sinner, the greater the right they have to His Mercy. Time to take this sacrament seriously.

"Let the greatest sinners place their trust in My mercy. They have the right before others to trust in the abyss of My mercy. My daughter (referring to St. Faustina), write about My mercy towards tormented souls".

Don't think you can "make a deal" with God to go to confession once or twice a year. Compared to the Glory of God, you would get lost in the eye of a needle. You can't make deals with God.

Let's pack the confessional this Lent.

ATTEND A CELEBRATION OF ST. JOSEPH
Tuesday, March 19 after 8 AM Mass in the Church Courtyard

Traditional Italian pastries and coffee will be served while we spend time in fellowship and thank St. Joseph for favors granted. The opportunity to write special intentions to St. Joseph will be offered and collected for Sunday Mass. All are welcome including parishioners, friends and family!

EXPLORE ALPHA!

Do you, or someone in your life, either not know Jesus or knows Him and wants to have a closer relationship with Him? Well, ALPHA is for you! But, what is ALPHA?

ALPHA is an opportunity to explore life and the Catholic faith in a friendly, open and informal environment. Gatherings are held in churches, bars, coffee shops and homes worldwide. Essentially, ALPHA is a safe place to explore life's biggest questions.

Our meetings begin with a meal, and are followed by a short video and small group discussion. ALPHA is a place where one can ask any questions or make any comments one wishes without being judged.

Taizé Prayer is named for the ecumenical Christian community formed in Taizé, France during World War II.

The Crosiers are members of the Canons Regular of the Order of the Holy Cross, one of the Roman Catholic Church's oldest religious orders. Their U.S. conventual priory is headquartered in Phoenix.
