Fourth Sunday of Easter

New Assignments for Sr. Margery and Sr. Susan Marie

It is with mixed emotions we announce that, after five years of service at Our Lady of Joy, Sr. Margery and Sr. Susan Marie have been reassigned by their Order, the Parish Visitors of Mary Immaculate.

Sr. Margery will return to the Order's Mother House in upstate New York where she will work in the Finance Office.

Sr. Susan Marie will move to a convent in the Philadelphia area where she has previously served in Evangelization.

We anticipate their departure will be in late June.

These wonderful Sisters made many significant contributions to our parish during their time here and will be greatly missed by everyone at Our Lady of Joy.

We will pray for their continued success and spiritual fulfillment in their vocations.

Our Lady of Joy will host a farewell reception for Fr. Clement, Sr. Margery and Sr. Susan Marie on Sunday, June 16th in the Parish Hall after the 11 AM Mass. Details to follow!

A MESSAGE FROM FR. CLEMENT

THE COURAGE TO LAY DOWN
OUR LIVES FOR OTHERS

Today is called "Good Shepherd Sunday". One of the remarkable qualities of a good shepherd is his willingness to lay down his life for his flock. Christ did that for us. He laid down His life for us on the cross. At every mass, He continues to lay down His life for us.

Like Jesus, we too are called to lay down our lives for others. One of the greatest ways many of you have inspired me in this parish is your dedication as caregivers to your loved ones. Some of you have given up your plans and your life so that your child with a special need or your loved one who is terminally ill can live. You are my heroes. Like Jesus, every second, every minute, every hour, every day, every week, and for the last ten, twenty, thirty years, you have been giving your very best so that your spouse, your son, your daughter, your mom, your dad, your sister, or your brother can live. I know it's not been easy. But it is people like you that give me the reason to never give up on humanity. Some people may never know what it means to love in a sacrificial way without your good example. So, THANK YOU!

If you know anyone laying down their life for someone, today is a good day to show them appreciation. I would like to propose again that once every year, we can come together to appreciate and celebrate all caregivers in our Parish. This will help our parishioners who are caregivers to their loved ones know they are not alone. I would also like to invite you all to support in any way, the ALL IN Ministry here at Our Lady of Joy. It's a ministry that supports people with special needs and their families. You can contact Maggie Cuevas @ 219-510-7459 for more details.

God bless you all!

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner—
Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

Change can be difficult to face and embrace whether we are simply being obedient, or it is a change that we choose, don't you agree?

There are changes coming to our parish. Many are feeling sad, and finding it hard to say goodbye. This actually shows how much we care about each other, and it also shows that the feelings we have and the relationships we built are worth it.

Consider God's plan. Consider that the Holy spirit cannot work if everything is stagnated. He moves and works when we say "yes" to God. He moves and works his wondrous deeds through change. We tend to fear change because of our fallen nature. It is, therefore, very important to place the future in His hands, and to trust His omnipotence.

Jesus has very important work in mind for those who are leaving us, but that does not mean that Jesus does not have very important work in mind for you, too! The future is bright! Let's all say yes to God and place our trust in Him.

You do not have to say goodbye, but rather, see you later. Let's make a plan to live humbly and mercifully so that we all go to heaven. And when we get there, let's find each other, embrace joyfully, and spend eternity arm in arm, as we stand together in complete awe of His Majesty, our Lord!
