FAREWELL RECEPTION FOR FR. CLEMENT,
SR. MARGERY AND SR. SUSAN MARIE
SUNDAY, JUNE 16TH 12 NOON
PARISH HALL

A MESSAGE FROM FR. JESS

"The Holy Spirit will guide you into all truth" (John 16:13).

According to Dr. John Bergsma, "The story is told of the little boy whose father asked him, "what is faith?" the boy replied, "It's when you believe things you know aren't true." This sums up the popular attitude toward the Christian faith in modern Western Culture. Both outside the Church and many inside as well, think the faith consists in clenching one's teeth and believing things that are probably false. But that is not the teaching of Jesus. Jesus taught what is true and taught us to seek the truth. It is not the Church but the culture that believes things that are not true."

For many years now, we have realize how many falsehoods our culture believes and hold them as true: That a baby in the womb is not a person; that all things could come to be by random chance and natural laws; that theirs is no such thing as sin; that sex outside of marriage has no negative consequences; that no biological gender, you can decide your own, be like God or replace God with yourself. Science alone can save you, no need of God, etc. We live in a surreal world of brainwashing falsehood in which truth of Christ seem odd or unrealistic. But the Gospel message is meant to lead us into real world and out of the fantasies of contemporary culture. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of truth, not fiction. The Gospel today teaches this truth:

Firstly, Jesus says, "When he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you into all truth." (Jn. 16:13). Jesus is speaking here not to individual Christians but to the Apostles gathered as a body. They are apostolic college, and Christ promises the Spirit will lead the gathered Apostles "into all truth."

Secondly, "he will not speak on his own... he will take from what is mine and declare it to you." This stresses the continuity between the ministry of Jesus and the ministry of the Spirit. The gift of the Holy Spirit does not enable us to "surpass" the teaching of Jesus and "evolve" into some higher plane of spirituality. The Spirit leads us deeper into understanding His teachings. He does not lead us to surpass or overturn it.

Thirdly, Jesus says, "you also testify." And while that command has its immediate application to the Apostles themselves, it also applies to the whole Church. We must testify to the truth of our faith in the middle of the culture that is founded on multiple falsehoods. The Spirit gives us the power to do that, the power to understand more deeply and also to proclaim it boldly.

May Our Blessed Mother intercede for us all as we seek the truth and submit to the Truth.

OLOJ FINANCE COUNCIL

Mary Roberts, Chair
Jim Crawford, Judy Lynn
Mark Neagle, Sue Ellen Smith

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner—
Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

Today is Pentecost, and we pray for the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. But what do we need to have in order to accept these graces? We must have spiritual poverty, the state we pray for when we say the "coming of the Holy Spirit" mystery on the Glorious Mysteries. "Blessed are the poor in spirit..." To be poor in spirit is to embrace the fact that you can do nothing on your own. To recognize that everything good comes from God, and anything we do that is praiseworthy is in fact, not of ourselves, but the works of God via the Holy Spirit. Does this mean that we should not accept compliments? We can humbly say thank you, but only if realizing that, every time, it is God receiving the compliment as we can do nothing on our own. This is a wonderful state of living in His truth. We are essentially acting as a beggar before the Lord!

The seven gifts:

- Wisdom (seeking God first before all else)
- Understanding (enlightenment to grasp God's truth)
- Counsel (guidance in decision making to do only what is pleasing to God)
- Fortitude (courage and strength in following Jesus)
- Knowledge (to know God and to know myself in the state of spiritual poverty)
- Piety (to enjoy God and the service of God)
- Fear of the Lord (that is, not to be afraid, but to have respect and reverence of the Lord and his omnipotence)

Spend some time reflecting on this today, and receive the Holy Spirit again, and again and again each and every day.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Prayer Shawls are given to people in need of prayers and comfort owing to illness, grief and stress and to celebrate life events, such as births, baptisms, marriages and birthdays. We meet on the last Friday of each month from 10 am to Noon in the Parish Hall.

Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one.

We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering.

You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

Today as we celebrate Pentecost the Holy Spirit wants to make us advocates of God's presence to bring new life to others, especially those who do not know the love of God in their lives.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring the love of God to the poor by assisting families, providing food, and helping them to pay utility and rent bills. Thank you!

Marian Movement of Priests Prayer Cenacle

Meets Mondays 9:30 am—10:30 am in the Parish Hall

Our Lady's Queen of Peace Prayer Cenacle of the Marian Movement of Priests is calling us to experience joy and peace at Our Lady of Joy Parish. We meet every Monday morning for coffee and prayers in the Parish Hall (sometimes at an offsite location). Our Lady asks us to entrust ourselves to her Immaculate Heart in the spirit of very little children. We pray for our priests as well as for the sick, suffering, and holy souls.

All are welcome!
