September 20, 2020 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Family of God,

God does not deal with us "fairly" and it is a good thing! We should be thankful God does not give us what we deserve. The parable this weekend tells us that our Heavenly reward is not something we earn, but rather a free gift. God has made His rewards available to all through Faith in Christ Jesus. Indeed, as Isaiah says: "As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts" (Is. 55:9). Heaven is a gift to us by God, it is all about graces that He is willing to give to those who are willing to receive them. Grace is an "undeserved love" that God has shown us through the death and Resurrection of His only Son Jesus Christ.

We receive this unmerited gift every time we are at Mass to receive Holy Communion, and will continue to receive for eternity after this life. Our Holy Communion is a foretaste of Eternal Communion with the Holy Trinity in heaven with all the angels and saints.

No matter when we have converted, our reward is the same, heaven, and eternal communion with God. But early conversion in life has its own reward, that is, the joy of knowing God here on earth and serving Him for his greater glory and being coworkers in the vineyard of the Lord.

May we all strive to be in the grace of God always and help others to do the same. May Our Lady of Joy intercede for us all.

Yours in Christ through Mary Immaculate,

Fr. Jess Ty

(Being) Catholic Matters

David Lins, Director of Faith Formation

During my eighteen years as a youth minister, I spent my fair share of time in various amusement parks. At some point during those years, the concept of the fast pass was introduced. (For an added price, you get to skip to the front of the lines.)

Initially, I absolutely hated the concept. I don't like lines anyway. Now, you are telling me people get to walk right by me because the insane cost of my ticket isn't enough?

Then, a friend bought me a fast pass. I never had to wait more than ten minutes to get on a ride. I'm not ashamed to admit...it was a beautiful day.

I guess it is all about perspective.

This Sunday's Gospel is much the same.

A landowner goes and hires some workers first thing in the morning. They negotiate a fair price. He goes back and hires more waves of workers throughout the day. Even when the day is almost over, he hires a few more.

As the day comes to a close, the landowner pays everyone the price he's agreed to with the first workers. Whether they worked ten hours or just one—they were paid the same.

If I worked all, I wouldn't be pleased. If I worked an hour, I'd have no complaints. It is definitely all about perspective.

In the end, we might struggle with God's mercy, forgiveness, and love when God showers it on our enemies. Yet, we beg for it when it comes to our loved ones. Interesting, how our view of mercy shifts based on the recipient.

We should all be grateful that someone like us doesn't have the final say on salvation. The final say comes from the One who gives us (and everyone else) chance after chance and opportunity after opportunity.

We must continue to change our lives and pray our loved ones (and enemies) do the same because this fast pass is for a ride that is out of this world.

Being Present as a Parent

"Things have changed, to be sure, over the past few decades but God's desire for us as His children and from us as parents has not. Teens desire companionship, affirmation, validation, and attention from those they love most. If they don't get it, they'll look for it elsewhere, in friendships and online. God's desire was for you to be that voice and guide, that's why He entrusted them to you.

Go back and read Deuteronomy 6:4-7. Re-read Matthew 28:20. Memorize Romans 12:9-10. Power off the phone. Plop down on the couch. Enjoy the ability to watch any movie on any platform without taking a drive to the video store. Better yet, take a walk or a drive with your child away from all the screens, remind them how much you love them and how thankful you are to be the one God chose to raise them. "

Mark Hart has an incredible article on being present as a parent to teenagers at lifeteen.com/parentlife

Check it out today! It's never too late to tell your kids you love them.

NEW! Sanctuary and Adoration Chapel Candle Sponsorships

All Catholic Churches have our blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

We are now offering our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor either a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in memory of a loved one.

Each of these memorials will be available every 7 days beginning October 1, 2020. We will publish these memorials in our bulletin each week and the sponsor will be provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are remembering. You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by contacting the office.

We continue to offer Mass Intentions as well. These may also be arranged by contacting the office. Mass Intentions are currently booked until March 2021, but future dates are available.

For candles and intentions, contact Kathleen in the Parish Office at 480-346-3045.

"In light of heaven, the worst suffering on earth will be seen to be no more serious than one night in an inconvenient hotel." -- Saint Teresa of Avila

LIVING AS A MISSIONARY DISCIPLE

By Sister Mary Eileen

My Thoughts Are Not Your Thoughts

It's often at a time when I think I have things figured out and under control that the Lord "pulls the rug out from under my feet". We have collectively had that rug pulled out during this time of upheaval and pandemic. "Lord, what are you doing? Why are you permitting this?" is probably a common prayer rising up to heaven.

God is all-powerful. He could end the coronavirus tomorrow if He chose to work a miracle. He is also infinitely wise and infinitely loving. He only permits evil when He foresees that a greater good will come of it. This is hard to accept when the really big sufferings come.

I had a conversation recently about a young child who was very sick. Why does God permit a child to suffer and die? In the course of the conversation I explained something not often talked about. As awful as it is in the here and now, we know that this child, when they get to heaven and look back on their life, would not change a single thing. They will then see as God sees. The suffering won't matter anymore because they will experience the joys of heaven which are so great that any remembrance of past sufferings on earth (even the worst) will seem like "one night in an inconvenient hotel" (St. Theresa of Avila). Moreover, that child will be given a corresponding degree of joy and glory for every single suffering he or she endured.

If God loves us so, how could the end-of-the-story be anything less than glorious, wonderful, beyond our expectations, and making everything utterly worth it?
