(Being) Catholic Matters

*By David Lins
Director of Faith Formation*

DO NOT LET YOUR HEARTS BE TROUBLED

When Jesus prepares his disciples for his imminent departure, he begins with the words, "Do not let your hearts be troubled."

Easy for him to say, right? He is God. Meanwhile, we are stuck here on Planet Earth dealing with the fallout of free will.

And the free will God has given us applies to everyone. It's given to folks who use it to follow Jesus' example with astonishing consistency. It's also given to folks who moderately try to be Christians, but never venture too far beyond their own comfort. And unfortunately, it's given to those who repay the gift with cruelty and sin.

The gift of free will has been entrusted to each of us, as well. And if I'm honest, I've vacillated between those three categories at various points of my spiritual journey.

All of this free will leaves a wake of brokenness and messiness every human heart has to navigate. This task is virtually impossible without resorting to worry, especially when one recognizes that the entire sales industry is built upon amplifying your anxiety.

Are you not as pretty or handsome as you once were? We can slow that process! Are you not as wealthy as your neighbor? We have advice that can get you there! Did you know termites never sleep? We have the latest pest control technology! Are your professional skills up-to-the-minute? We have the most effective training in the free world! Is the country going to hell in a handbasket? Watch our show because you need to stay informed! And the list goes on and on.

And yet Jesus last advice is, "Do not let your hearts be troubled?" Seriously?!

It was almost as if he knew good wins out eventually. He knew this world is not the end for those who follow him. He knew he was leaving us the Holy Spirit to make navigating the messiness of this world possible.

And He knew he was preparing a place for us free from all anxiety.

David will be back "in office" from back surgery by May 16th at the earliest.

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner— Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

Jesus said that exaggerated anxiety and discouragement are the 2 greatest obstacles to holiness. He said anxiety is the fruit of self love. How could anxiety possibly be "self love"? We think of self love as vanity; looking in the mirror and admiring ourselves, holding ourselves in high regard or being impressed with ourselves. But self love can manifest itself in other ways. When we are anxious, we are not so much worried about how things will turn out, but how we will deal with it when it does. Will I be humiliated? Will I know how to handle the outcome? What will I do? This may not sound like self "love", but actually any focus on "self" is self love, whether it is admiration or worry. The final consequence of self love, or anxiety, is lack of trust in Jesus, his omnipotence and divine providence.

If this sounds like you, (and it actually sounds like most of us), ask Him for the grace to trust Him more. When the temptation to worry creeps up, focus on Him, not the storm.

Say, "Jesus, I put it in your hands." Then be still. He is right next to you waiting for you to do it.

He said that the vessel by which we access his mercy is trust. He wishes to lavish souls that trust in him with overflowing graces. Trust in Him is the opposite of anxiety.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Prayer Shawls are given to people in need of prayers and comfort owing to illness, grief and stress. We also make Prayer Shawls to celebrate a variety of life events, such as births, baptisms, marriages and birthdays. We pray on our shawls as we are making them and, when a shawl is finished, the group gathers around and offers prayers for the recipient.

We meet on the last Friday of each month from 10 am to Noon in the Parish Hall.

OUR LADY'S GUILD WANTS YOUR BEST RECIPES FOR THEIR JUBILEE COOKBOOK!

Our Lady's Guild is compiling our parishioners' favorite recipes into a new cookbook. From traditional family favorites to your own creative concoctions, we want to include your recipes in our new Jubilee Cookbook! The Jubilee Cookbook will be beautifully illustrated and available for purchase for an anticipated cost of $25. Proceeds will help fund a future Women's Retreat open to all parishioners and a Guild Jubilee Celebration.

Capturing family recipes is a time-honored way to share your family's history and legacy with our faithful church community. We invite parishioners to submit 3-4 of their favorite recipes for inclusion in the Jubilee Cookbook.

You may submit in two ways:

1. Go to Typensave.com (preferred)
User Name: OLI8347$hdm
Password: strawberry598

2. Submit a copy of your recipe with your name and phone number and place in basket in the parish office.

Sponsorships are available: Full page ad ($250), ½ page ad ($150) and ¼ page ad ($90). Memorial sponsorships for a loved one are also offered ($25). Contact Linda Mulvey at lpmulvey@yahoo.com for sponsorship details and ad specifications.

Deadline for recipes and sponsorships is June 1, 2023.

The best recipes are meant to be shared! We can't wait to see your "heavenly" recipes in print for all parishioners to enjoy! The Jubilee Cookbook will also be a wonderful gift for friends and family!

In the Gospel today, Jesus says, "...whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father."

Through your almsgiving you are performing a good work; far greater than you think. The coins placed in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box bring Christ's love and compassion to the poor.

ARE YOU REGISTERED AT OUR LADY OF JOY?
