(Being) Catholic Matters

By David Lins
Director of Faith Formation

I just walked into the office.

Let me write those words again.

I just WALKED into the office.

Over the past year, I've received four lumbar shots, had three MRIs, two x-rays, a myelogram, my bloodwork done several times, three hospital stays, a discectomy, and an anterior lumbar interbody fusion. I've used a cane. Then, a walker. Finally, a wheelchair.

So many friends, family, coworkers, and parishioners prayed for me. And those prayers moved mountains. They helped me get in for a second opinion in record time. They convinced a vascular surgeon and a neurosurgeon to operate in an empty operating room on a Saturday morning so I didn't have to wait until July for their schedules to align. The prayer moved family, friends, and many of you to help in ways I never could have hoped for. Despite the pain and worry, they kept a smile on my face (most days). They helped my wife through months that seemed hopeless. And ultimately they helped the medical team operate successfully.

The grace of God made things happen that would not have happened otherwise.

And this is what Pentecost is all about.

It's true that God didn't want to leave us—so he left us himself in the Eucharist AND the Holy Spirit. But he also knew we'd need his help.

Much like my daughter who isn't quite six cannot do a fraction of what I can do, we cannot accomplish what our heavenly Father is capable of. Put more clearly: without God, we are a complicated jumble of matter.

But with God, we are capable of doing things that truly matter. When we pray for the gifts of the Holy Spirit to come alive in us each day, we tap into the supernatural. We say things, understand things, do things, and pray for things we aren't capable of on our own.

When we allow the Holy Spirit to move in us, we might even have the power to heal a man who was confined to a wheelchair.

Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one. We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering. You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

We will begin accepting registration forms for the 2023/24 season in May. Registration forms will be attached to current members' May newsletters, at the April and May general meeting and in the parish office. Forms will also be available online under Our Lady's Guild. Feel free to mail or drop off your registration form with payment to the parish office.

If you have questions, please contact Sharon Madura at sbmadura@yahoo.com.

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner— Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

In St. Faustina's diary, she writes of severe abdominal pain between the hours of 8pm-11pm. These were the hours when most abortions were performed in Warsaw, the nearest large town to her.

"At 8 o'clock I was seized with such violent pains that I had to go to bed at once. I was convulsed with pain for 3 hours; that is, until 11 o'clock at night. At times, the pain caused me to lose consciousness. Jesus had me realize in this way, I took part in His agony in the garden, and that He himself allowed these sufferings in order to offer reparation to God for the souls murdered in the wombs of mothers."

"One day, Jesus told me that he would cause a chastisement to fall upon the most beautiful city in our country, I saw the great wrath of God and a shutter pierced my heart. When I saw the Divine wrath, which was about to strike the earth, and in particular a certain place, I began to implore the Angel to hold off for a few moments. But my plea was a mere nothing in the face of the Divine Anger."

She goes on to describe how she began to say the Divine Mercy Chaplet at the very throne of God, and the Angel did not strike. We do not need any further clarification that abortion is a direct violation of the Divine will of God. This is not a political talking point, but a Divine command. We also see that the Divine Mercy Chaplet is a powerful prayer. It mitigates Divine anger and implores God's mercy. The Divine Mercy Chaplet is thought to be the second most powerful prayer after the Rosary.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Prayer Shawls are given to people in need of prayers and comfort owing to illness, grief and stress. We also make Prayer Shawls to celebrate a variety of life events, such as births, baptisms, marriages and birthdays. We pray on our shawls as we are making them and, when a shawl is finished, the group gathers around and offers prayers for the recipient.

We meet on the last Friday of each month from 10 am to Noon in the Parish Hall.

OUR LADY'S GUILD WANTS YOUR BEST RECIPES FOR THEIR JUBILEE COOKBOOK!

Our Lady's Guild is compiling our parishioners' favorite recipes into a new cookbook. From traditional family favorites to your own creative concoctions, we want to include your recipes in our new Jubilee Cookbook! The Jubilee Cookbook will be beautifully illustrated and available for purchase for an anticipated cost of $25. Proceeds will help fund a future Women's Retreat open to all parishioners and a Guild Jubilee Celebration.

Capturing family recipes is a time-honored way to share your family's history and legacy with our faithful church community. We invite parishioners to submit 3-4 of their favorite recipes for inclusion in the Jubilee Cookbook. You may submit in two ways:

1. Go to Typensave.com (preferred)
User Name: OLJ8347$hdm
Password: strawberry598

2. Submit a copy of your recipe with your name and phone number and place in basket in the parish office.

Sponsorships are available: Full page ad ($250), ½ page ad ($150) and ¼ page ad ($90). Memorial sponsorships for a loved one are also offered ($25). Contact Linda Mulvey at lpmulvey@yahoo.com for sponsorship details and ad specifications.

Deadline for recipes and sponsorships is June 1, 2023.

The best recipes are meant to be shared! We can't wait to see your "heavenly" recipes in print for all parishioners to enjoy! The Jubilee Cookbook will also be a wonderful gift for friends and family!

Today as we celebrate Pentecost, Jesus says to his disciples: "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brought the love and care of Jesus to the poor by assisting families, providing food and helping with utility and rent bills. Thank you!

ARE YOU REGISTERED AT OUR LADY OF JOY?
