A Few Words from Sr. Susan Marie

When I first came here to Our Lady of Joy, almost three years ago, all of you welcomed me with open arms as if you already knew me and were welcoming me home. My experience here has been a grace-filled and beautiful one. It is very hard for me to say good-bye.

I want to thank Father Jess and Father Clement for all you did and continue to do for the parishioners here at OLOJ. Father Parks, even though you arrived recently, my thanks to you as well. All three of you show in a wonderful way what a priest should be—one fully open to the Holy Spirit and truly devoted to Our Blessed Mother. I also want to thank Laura Hicks and everyone on the staff. You are truly like a family to me.

To all the parishioners of Our Lady of Joy, please know that I take each of you in my heart and know that you will daily be in my thoughts and prayers.

Here is my address in Philly, as of September 1st:

A MESSAGE FROM FR. PARKS

Ordinary to Extraordinary

It's summer. It's June, and it's hot. And although the summer has just begun, it feels like we are already in the "dog days of summer." There can be a ho-hum attitude about the summer days as they roll on—hot and interminable.

A similar mindset can afflict us as Catholics as we think about ordinary time in the liturgical year. It is easy to get excited for Advent as we prepare for Christmas, or to be in a spirit of penitence as we enter the practices of Lent longing for Easter. But Ordinary time? It can feel so, well—ordinary.

The truth is ordinary time is anything but. Ordinary time is about the extraordinary call of Jesus to discipleship, to conform every part of our life to his Lordship and love. In fact, the word that most encapsulates Ordinary Time is "imitatio", a Latin word for "imitation". We are called as followers of Jesus to become like Jesus. That is a shocking claim, but the New Testament is replete with language explicating just that. As Saint Paul says, "It is no longer I who live but Christ who lives within me (Galatians 2:20)." Or as Peter says in his New Testament letter we become—by grace—"partakers of the divine nature." God wants to live inside of you and through you, and by that means you are conformed to him.

Ordinary time can feel basic, and in a sense, it is because it is about the "nuts and bolts" of the Christian life—listening to Jesus, reforming our life, praying, frequenting the sacraments, growing in virtue, living out Christian fellowship, etc. But it is not ordinary when you consider the end of those things—to become "Godlike", to more and more imitate the One who loves us from all eternity. As St. Gregory of Nyssa once remarked, "The goal of a virtuous life is to become like God", and there is nothing ordinary about that.

Mark Neagle, Sue Ellen Smith

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner— Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

Dear Jesus,

I have been thinking lately about the times in my life when I did not invite you in. I know you love me and are always there, but I also know that is not enough. I now understand that I need to walk with you as you desire to walk with me. I need to live intentionally; intentionally inviting you into my life.

I want you there when I go to work. When I come home. I want you there when I drive somewhere. I want you there when I shop for groceries. I want you there when I read, when I bathe, when I cook, when I am out with friends. I want you there when I am with my family. I want you there when I am lonely, when I am laughing, when I am frustrated, when I am afraid, when I am joyful. I want you there when I am awake. I want you there when I sleep.

I want to be aware that everything I do, say, or think is completely in your site, never secret.

I vow to never receive you unworthily in the Holy Eucharist. I will not receive you and then go about my business, leaving you to yourself. I will not receive you as part of a mindless routine; with presumption. I will proceed to communion in an intentional way. I will go back to the pew with intentional silence, grateful for you.

I now understand that I need to actively want you there. I need to be intentionally grateful. I now understand that what brings you delight is to unite with a humble, grateful human heart.

Thank you for the grace to embrace your desire to unite me this way! Thank you for being my Good Shepherd!

With Love and Gratitude,

_____ (your name)

Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one.

We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering.

You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

Today, Jesus looking around those seated in the circle said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Through your almsgiving you are indeed doing the will of God and your gift placed in the St. Vincent de Paul poor box indeed brings Christ's love and compassion to the poor.

Marian Movement of Priests Prayer Cenacle

Meets Mondays 9:30 am—10:30 am in the Parish Hall

Our Lady's Queen of Peace Prayer Cenacle of the Marian Movement of Priests is calling us to experience joy and peace at Our Lady of Joy Parish. We meet every Monday morning for coffee and prayers in the Parish Hall (sometimes at an offsite location). Our Lady asks us to entrust ourselves to her Immaculate Heart in the spirit of very little children. We pray for our priests as well as for the sick, suffering, and holy souls.

All are welcome!
