A MESSAGE FROM FR. JESS

Fifty years ago," Archbishop Fulton Sheen solemnly said during a television show, that "First of all, we are at the end of Christendom, now not Christianity, not the Church." He meant, "Christendom is economic, political, social life as inspired by Christian principles. That is ending — we've seen it die. Look at the symptoms: the breakup of the family, divorce, abortion, immorality, general dishonesty." That was 1974. Today we know it's even worse with the definition of marriage, gender confusions, and total disrespect of God and His commandments.

He continued, "Social peace, world peace, is the extension of individual peace in our hearts. When we are right with God, then we will be right with our fellow man. When are not right with God, then we will be wrong with everyone else."

He told everyone to take seriously spending an hour before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament every day "not only for our own souls, but for the world, and to strengthen our minority."

The Eucharistic Revival for the past three years and culminating three weeks ago during the National Eucharistic Congress at Indianapolis, gives us some hope. Bishop Robert Barron echoed this invitation of Archbishop Sheen to all the faithful during the congress. I have seen many young families with multiple young children participated and putting God first in their lives. Thousands of priests and bishops, and more than fifty thousand of lay faithful renewed their faith in Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.

For us Christians to thrive we all need to continue this Revival of our faith in Jesus and be Eucharistic Missionaries, witnessing our faith and proclaiming it with love to all the people we meet. Being ready to offer sacrifices for others in imitation of the Lord, so they will know and love and serve our Lord too. Renew our love and devotion to Jesus in the Eucharist, the Bread that came down from heaven, making Him the Source, the Summit and Center of our Christian lives. With God on our side and we, the faithful in union with Jesus, nothing is impossible with God. We are assured of victory in this spiritual warfare.

Jesus said in our Gospel this Sunday, "I am the living Bread which came down from Heaven; if anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread which I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh." (John 6:51).

May the Blessed Virgin Mary, our Queen-Mother, and Saint Joseph intercede for us all to be Eucharistic Missionaries in our times, conquering one soul at a time for Jesus.

OLOJ FINANCE COUNCIL

Mary Roberts, Chair
Jim Crawford, Judy Lynn,
Mark Neagle, Sue Ellen Smith

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner—
Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

These are pearls from the National Eucharistic Congress

- Your Christianity is not for you. Christianity is not a self-help program, something designed just to make us feel better about ourselves. Your Christianity is for the world. Bishop Robert Barron
- You can never have a revival without repentance. Fr. Mike Schmitz
- Knowledge can make one great; but only love can make you a saint. Fr. Mike Schmitz
- We can have Him and nobody can take Him away from us. Mother Olga of the Sacred Heart
- The Lord is not overwhelmed by you. He loves you, and He sees you, and He's not deterred by anything. Sister Miriam James Heidland
- The Eucharist for me is healing. The Eucharist for me is peace. The Eucharist for me is my grounding. The Eucharist for me is His heart within me. Jonathan Roumie
- We need a new pentecost. We need to be filled with boldness. We need to be filled with intrepidity. We need to be filled with love, with generosity to be able to sacrifice everything for the sake of the Kingdom. Mother Adela Galindo
- Those who choose to stay with Jesus will be sent by Jesus...Let us go to proclaim Jesus zealously and joyfully for the life of the world. Cardinal Luis Antonio Tagle
- Brothers and sisters, we believe that God desires to renew His church and that this renewal will happen through you. And that in renewing His church, He will renew the world. Bishop Andrew Cozzens
- He who made the promise is true and so we can be people who repent with courage and joy. What a contradiction to be people who say, 'I'm broken and I'm sinful and I'm joyful and I'm hopeful.' What would the world do with a pilgrim people like that? Sister Josephine Garrett
- The love of God has been poured into our hearts and it's the kindness of God that leads us to life-giving repentance. Sister Bethany Madonna
- It's time for faithful Catholics to stop living for God. Instead we should start living from Him. The body and blood of the Lord is the source of our life, our energy, and our joy. So let's eat and drink here and everyday to our heart's content and then let's rush out into a starving world and tell everybody we meet, 'Starving people, listen! We found where the food is!' Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one.

We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering.

You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

In this Gospel, the love that Jesus reveals through the symbol of the cross is: self-giving, sacrificial, healing, forgiving, in solidarity with the weak, confident in the power of God.

During the hot summer months many of the elderly, especially those who are sick, are not able to find relief from the heat. Please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring respite and hope to them.
