A MESSAGE FROM FR. JESS

What does it really mean when they say "The Real Presence" of Christ in the Eucharist?

The Catechism says this: In the most blessed sacrament of the Eucharist "the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained." "This presence is called 'real'—by which is not intended to exclude the other types of presence as if they could not be 'real' too, but because it is presence in the fullest sense: that is to say, it is a substantial presence by which Christ, God and man, makes himself wholly and entirely present." (CCC 1374).

All those other presences are spiritual presences, but in the Eucharist, he is substantially present because his body, his blood, his soul, and divinity are all present under the appearance of bread and wine. In the Eucharist Christ is not only present in spirit, but he is also present in his body. He's not just present in his divinity; his divinity is present everywhere. God is omnipresent, God is pure spirit, and the second person of the Trinity, the Son, is also pure spirit from all eternity, he's omnipresent. But when he assumes a human nature, by definition that human nature is limited. And in his humanity Christ is only present at the right hand of God, where he sits embodied on the throne of God after the Ascension and in the Eucharist in every tabernacle and on every altar.

According to Dr. Brant Pitre: "You can have a body and blood at the scene of a car accident but what you might have there is just a corpse. But if you have a body, blood, and a soul united to that body and blood, then what you have is a person. And if you also have body, blood, soul, and divinity, then you have a divine person, you have the God-man. You have the God who has become man for our sake, present under the Eucharistic species. In other words, the Eucharist is God. That's what we mean when we say Christ is really present in the Eucharist. You can be with the spirit of God anywhere, but if you want to be with the God-man, if you want to be with Christ in his body, you need to go to mass, you need to go to an adoration chapel, you need to go to the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. That's what lovers do. That's what people who are in love do. When we love someone, we don't just want to be with them in spirit, we want to be with them in the body. We want to be close to them and we miss them when we are apart from them. That's the great gift that Christ has given us in the Eucharist."

Let us prove our love for Jesus by visiting Him often in the Blessed Sacrament or spending an hour a week with God in our Adoration Chapel.

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner—
Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

Ephesians 4:26-27

"Be angry, and yet do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil."

Holy anger can be described as anger that is primarily motivated by a perception of injustice or other profound moral lapse, rather than a personal insult. It is righteous, not self-righteous.

Much has been said about the antics at the Olympics; the blasphemous mockery of Jesus at the Last Supper, Christianity, and the Catholic faith in particular. Our church cardinals, bishops and priests have spoken out, which is a great thing. They need our support. They are providing leadership, a light in the darkness of the world.

Jesus said that His kingdom is not of this world. This is Satan's domain. His influence is strong. We also know that he is confounded by Mary. Her profound humility is incomprehensible to him. He simply can't understand Her. Exorcists have stated many times that Satan and his demons cannot tolerate her. From this, we see a way to come out swinging.

Step 1: Consecration to Mary's Immaculate Heart is an effective way to fight. If we are to put on the armor of Christ, it is imperative that all Catholics consecrate themselves to Her without delay.

St. Louis de Montfort was an expert at Marian Consecration, as were St. Maximillian Kolbe, St. Teresa of Calcutta and St. John Paul II. The book, 33 Days To Morning Glory, is a highly recommended way to accomplish this. It is simple and complete. You can Google it and purchase it from a number of sources. Easy. Do this today.

Step 2: Join the army! Mary needs soldiers and she needs them now. What if you were to discover that there is already a Legion of Angels in heaven at Her command, as well as a militia here on earth? The Legion of Mary is for consecrated religious and lay persons alike. All are invited, and Jesus and Mary want very much to use you to defeat evil. There is tremendous power in the daily prayers and activities of the Legion. If you are unable to commit to the activities, you can be an auxiliary member, in which you say the daily prayers (25 minutes). The Legion of Mary is an international association and nearly every diocese worldwide has a chapter, including OLOJ. Contact Terri Brubaker at terri@chooseablessing.org to join. You can also visit OLOJ's website for more information. We serve Jesus under the standard of Mary. She will teach and guide you, and it will give God glory!

In the words of Mother Angelica, founder of EWTN Catholic Television - "This is no time to be a Catholic chicken!" Do not be tempted to lukewarmness. It is time for action. Mary is calling you. Will you answer?

Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one.

We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering.

You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." As we know, our loving God cannot be seen by our eyes, but only experienced through loving people.

With love for your neighbors who have nothing, look around your house to see what furniture, household items, and clothing you no longer use...and give it to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.
