23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"—that is, "Be opened!" - Mk 7:32-34

A MESSAGE FROM FR. PARKS Abuse of Language, Abuse of Power

Some years ago, I came across a little book called “Abuse of Language, Abuse of Power” by the Catholic German philosopher Josef Pieper. This book explained to me why I generally hated political discourse but didn’t know why. I wanted to be an informed Catholic American doing my patriotic duty –which falls under the fourth commandment – by learning the issues and voting well i.e. according to a well-formed Catholic conscience. And yet, I had such little patience for politicians and their discourse –why?

As Pieper points out, the Greek Philosopher Plato (through the mouthpiece of Aristotle) had a great aversion to the Sophists. The Sophists were those public philosophers and intellectuals who you could pay to listen to them speak. Plato was dead set against them because he believed that they corrupted the word i.e. language itself.

How so? Language is so important because when we learn to use it properly, we are not merely learning another subject among many (chemistry, history, etc.) we are learning to use the means by which we convey ideas. To use an economic analogy, if every subject we learn in school is like a product that is sold in a market economy, language is the currency (the money) by which we discuss ideas. The end of language is to convey reality. We use words to convey truth to another person, i.e. language has an interpersonal character. So, when you corrupt language by using it no longer to convey truth, but to conceal truth so as to manipulate another, you are destroying the very purpose for which language exists. This is done through a kind of flattery to the listener, but the real intention of the one speaking, is to gain a power over them through manipulation. Pieper goes so far as to say that when one lies in communicating to another –which is to be the means by which we see something together – plainly speaking, you cannot say you are communicating at all—you have falsified language and its reason for existing. And again, this is often done to manipulate another so as to have power over them. Think of all the high sounding rhetoric of so many autocrats he said sweet lies to tickle the ears of their listeners, only so that when they attain power, they immediately go back on their word.

Now, to today. Language is misused so often in our culture. Think of words like, “love, truth, freedom, discriminate, sex, marriage, etc. etc.” – these words – and their plain meaning – are so often corrupted so one group can attain power over another. As Catholics, we are to love words, because we love reality. In our current day, we can commit to doing two things, firstly: let us always speak truth and have the courage to say what needs to be said even in the face of societal pressure to do otherwise. Secondly, let us discern carefully when we hear the language of others – “are they speaking truth?”, or do these sweet-sounding but false words have a more menacing motive beneath them?

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner—
Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

We all took history class in school. We learned about some pretty intense battles during times of war from the Revolutionary War to the Civil War, World War I, World War II, Korea, Vietnam, plus others.

Imagine any of the above battlefields with two sides fighting, following orders to the letter, while many are at the front lines, wandering around, unable to pick a side. The commander can clearly see the entire fight and is calling out orders, but the wandering soldiers in the middle don't know how to listen, or don't want to. They can't seem to make up their mind whose side they are on. Many even pick and choose which orders are convenient for them and which are not. How will the commander handle this? What will happen in the battle? Will this cause chaos and additional loss of lives? Who will be rewarded? Punished? Snatched to a terrible place they never thought they would be?

Now understand that the battleground is earth, and heaven and hell are not just watching, but heavily involved. You will not hear artillery or see smoke on this battle ground. Satan's tactics are mostly psychological. He is more manipulative and stealthy than you are capable of comprehending.

Jesus and Mary are also heavily involved, but can do much less to help you without your definitive YES. Cherry picking the teachings of the Catholic Church leaves you as one who is wandering around in the middle of the battle. Jesus sees the entire battle and is calling out orders. Lukewarmness muffles them. The danger of condemnation increases. Since we will be judged by God's standards and not our own, we cannot underestimate how dangerous lukewarmness is to our soul. If we could see our souls the way God sees them, we would be extra careful even to avoid the near occasion of sin, let alone venial or mortal sin. We would follow every teaching of the Catholic church.

We must choose a side completely, not partially. The only guarantee about salvation is that there is no guarantee.

Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one.

We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering.

You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

In today's Gospel we hear how Jesus "makes the deaf hear and the mute speak!" In living the gospel, we must open our ears to hear and recognize all the everyday opportunities for making God's presence known, especially to those who are poor and suffering. On September 9, the Church celebrates the feast of Blessed Frederic Ozanam, the founder of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. If you know a family who needs assistance, please contact us so that together we can "make God's presence known" to those in need.
