A MESSAGE FROM FR. JESS

What is idolatry and autolatry? Why is obedience crucial to avoid both?

According to David Fagerberg, in his article at “The Catholic Thing,” 9/18/22. Religion is a virtue because it renders God his due. When asked to whom latria (“supreme worship”) should be given, justice answers that only the Uncreated should be worshipped, not a creature.

But there is something more serious – and perhaps more common – than worshiping an image (eidolon-latria). It is worshiping ourselves: auto-latria. Autolatry is more secret and more serious than idolatry because the false god dwells within. It is us.

Both the belief in God and the love of God must manifest as obedience to God. That’s why spiritual writers refer to Samuel’s words to Saul, when he said: It is like the sin of witchcraft to rebel: and like the crime of idolatry to refuse to obey. (1 Samuel 15:23) One of the masters of asceticism (John Baptist Scaramelli, S.J.) explains what Samuel meant: “The reason is, because, by disobedience, we set our own opinion and self-will above the will of God made known to us by holy obedience.”

Idolatry is similar to disobedience in this way: in the former, we adore an idol of wood or stone instead of the true God to whom adoration alone is due, and in the latter, we stray from the true rule and follow a deceitful one, which is that of our own judgment and of the maxims of the world. False adoration and false judgment are related. Right worship and righteousness are related. God’s will must be received liturgically: i.e. with adoration.

Autolatry is setting our own opinion and self-will above the will of God. About what? Not only religious matters (though autolatry is plenty active in those issues), but also things of the world. How can we judge politics, social norms, sex, gender, the family, the unborn, the stranger, the criminal, the victim, etc., in a righteous manner if we have placed our self-will above the will of God? St. John Eudes says, “pride causes the sinner to make an idol of self, and put himself in God’s place, since he prefers himself to God when his own interests, his satisfactions, his own will and desires are at stake.”

May we all strive to imitate Jesus who was totally obedient to the Father.

OLOJ FINANCE COUNCIL

Mary Roberts, Chair
Jim Crawford, Judy Lynn,
Mark Neagle, Sue Ellen Smith

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner—
Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

What is mercy and how can we be merciful? Mercy is a genuine kindness and loving attitude toward others. This attitude is extended to all those we love, those who are challenging, and those who have injured us. It is an attitude toward all mankind without exception. Mercy is synonymous with forgiveness. This, of course, does not mean that evil is tolerated. It is indeed merciful to speak out against evil. But speaking out must be done with mercy in mind. It does not mean that you are a doormat, but it does mean that forgiveness is always offered. Mary gave us these words to say after each decade of the rosary during her Fatima apparitions; "Oh my Jesus, forgive us our sins. Save us from the fires of hell. Lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of thy mercy."

Who are those "especially in need of His mercy?" Those who commit the most heinous acts? Those who are cruel? Those who turn their back on God? Those who are so terribly broken, and so misled by Satan's stealthy tactics that they have no idea that their salvation is in great jeopardy? It would certainly seem so.

Consider what Jesus said to St. Faustina; "The greater the sinner, the greater the right to my mercy." Now, think about the world today. See the brokenness that abounds. Imagine Jesus hanging on the cross where He saw it all, and yes, He saw the world as it is today. And from high up on the cross, he forgave.

What about when we are merciless? When we gossip, or talk about "those people" or "that group?" Mercilessness is condemnation and nothing more. But who among us has the right to condemn? "For God did not send His son into the world to condemn it, but in order that the world might be saved through Him"- John 3:17.

Jesus does not condemn those in most need of His mercy. That sounds ridiculous, doesn't it? He calls us to forgive from our cross as He forgave from His. Will you answer?

Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one.

We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering.

You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

In today's gospel Jesus tells his disciples: "Anyone who gives you a drink of water because you belong to Christ will not, I assure you, go without his reward." On September 27, the Church will celebrate the feast of St. Vincent de Paul. The members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul are on the front line in laboring for the poor, they are the first to know their real needs. This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist families with food and financial assistance for rent, utilities and other bills. Thank you!

Marian Movement of Priests Prayer Cenacle

Meets on Mondays 8:30 AM—10 AM

We begin in the church after the 8 AM Mass. Rosary at 8:30 AM followed by the Divine Mercy Chaplet. Then, we gather in the Parish Hall for coffee, final prayers and fellowship. All are invited to find peace through the Immaculate Heart of Mary as we pray for our priests as well as for the sick, suffering and holy souls.

No need to sign up, just show up! Our Lady of Queen of Peace, pray for us.

Our new MMOP Children's Cenacle meets on Mondays from 5 PM to 5:30 PM in the Parish Hall
