A MESSAGE FROM FR. JESS

How do we enter greatness in God's standard?

According to Dr. John Bergsma: The key to receiving lasting glory is Jesus Himself, and the center of Jesus' mission is His freely laying down His life for the sake of us sinners. Leaders of this world, Jesus says, exercise leadership for their own benefit. This is the way Satan understands leadership—for the benefit of the one in authority. But Jesus inverts this image—leadership is for the benefit of the one who is lead. Therefore, the leader is a servant, and the greatest leader is the greatest servant. Jesus does not impose His Divine authority over us. He does not display his power so that we will fear and honor Him. Instead, He comes to us in a form of a servant. Though He is the King of kings, He has not come to be served but to serve and to give His life as a ransom for many. Jesus explains that “whoever wishes to be great among you” must follow this pattern. His own way of life reveals how we, His disciples, must live to provide service to others if we are to enter glory.

This paradoxical way—the way to greatness by means of humble service; the way to life by means of death—was prophesied by Isaiah in our first reading. “He gives his life as an offering for sin... through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear.” Jesus is the “Suffering Servant” that Isaiah prophesied. The idea that one innocent person's suffering could benefit others who are guilty radically changes our whole idea about suffering. What seems to our nature to be either an injustice or a punishment is suddenly transformed into a supreme act of selfless love, a gift, a “ransom” and a redemptive suffering. This is God's extraordinary answer to the problem of sin. This is how the great mercy of God is at work: “He allows evil so that greater good will come out of it.”

Our glory is based entirely on the infinite mercy and compassion that Jesus our High Priest shows for sinners. Our task is to accept Him and consecrate our lives to Him who loved us unto the end, who suffered, died, and rose from the dead for us. Let us give Him and the Holy Spirit permission to work in our lives, and with Peter let us rejoice to the extent that we share in the sufferings of Christ, so that when his glory is revealed we may also rejoice exultantly. (1 Peter 4:13)

"Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me." - Matthew 25:40

Who are the "least"? The homeless? The very old? The Mentally ill? The unborn child? Those deemed unworthy of life?

An estimated six million Jews were murdered in the holocaust. This is a brutal fact. There are many other genocides in the world's history with tremendous murderous statistics. Someone thought these people were unworthy of life, so they were executed.

"Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me."

Let's take a look at the genocide aimed specifically at children. The CDC reports that 625,978 abortions were completed in 2021 alone. Since 2010, 706,183,000 million abortions have been completed. 706,183,000 children. St. Theresa of Calcutta always said that no one is more unloved than the unborn child, and the statistics prove her correct.

"Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me."

If there is no life, there is no growth. If something is alive, it grows. From the moment of conception, there is growth in the unborn child. They are alive. You were alive in your mother's womb the moment that you were conceived. You were deeply loved by the author of love, God. This is God's plan. You were loved into existence. You were planned and loved long before you were born. You are no different than the unborn child; you once were an unborn child. And you were worthy of life regardless of what anyone else said, so says God!

"Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me."

Cancer, diabetes, congestive heart failure, organ failure, etc. are examples of health care problems. Babies are not a "healthcare problem," as many say. Babies are one of the least, and therefore, deserve the most. They are worthy of life, so says God.

"Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me."

Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one.

We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering.

You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells his disciples: "Anyone among you who aspires to greatness must serve the rest; whoever wants to rank first among you must serve the needs of all."

When you give the furniture, household items, and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you give hope to your neighbors who have nothing.

We pray for our priests as well as for the sick, suffering and holy souls. Please join us!
