THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

To those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. - Jn 2:16-17

A MESSAGE FROM FR. JESS

Dear Family of God,

Why celebrate the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome?

First, because it is the Episcopal Seat (the Cathedral) of the Pope as the Bishop of Rome. And so, this Church is the "Mother and Head of all Churches in Rome and the World," according to the inscription which Pope Clement XII (1730-1740) placed in the Church.

Secondly, it is the first public Christian Church in the Roman Empire, built by Emperor Constantine after he legalized Christianity (313 A.D.). It was dedicated by Pope St. Sylvester I last November 9, 324. Located on a land owned by the Laterani family, that is why the name St. John Lateran Basilica. But its official name is "The Papal Archbasilica of the Most Holy Savior and Saints John the Baptist and John the Evangelist in the Lateran."

Thirdly, it was the residence of the Pope since the 4th Century until their moving to Avignon in 1309, then to the Vatican in 1377. Was the site of five Ecumenical Councils, when the first Jubilee Year was proclaimed in the 1300 and the place where St. Francis of Assisi petitioned the Pope to begin the Franciscan Order.

Pope Innocent X commissioned the present structure in 1646; beneath its high altar rest the remain of a small wooden table, on which, according to tradition, St. Peter celebrated the Mass.

May we all worship the Body of Christ present both in the Blessed Sacrament and in every Christian united to Jesus Christ in faith and the sacraments.

Yours in Christ through Mary Immaculate,

Fr. Jess Ty

Wreaths Across America Project

Our Military Veterans Ministry has partnered with the veteran ministries at the Franciscan Renewal Center and La Casa de Cristo Lutheran Church to purchase wreaths to be put on the graves of veterans at the National Cemetery of Arizona in Phoenix on Saturday, December 13. The cost of the wreaths is $17 each. If you would like to donate one or more wreaths, volunteer to place wreaths, or learn more about the national Wreaths of Honor Program, visit qr.thecasa.org/waa. You can scan the QR code to donate. The deadline for donating wreaths is Friday, November 30.

Continuation from last week—encounters with souls in purgatory:

"I am Pietro Di Mauro. I died in a fire on Sept. 18, 1908," the man in the black cloak told Padre Pio who was lying on his cot one evening. The man said he had lived and died in that room when the monastery was used as a home for the elderly. Padre Pio asked the man what he wanted.

"I am coming from purgatory. The Lord has allowed me to come to ask you to offer for me the Holy Mass of tomorrow morning. I will then be able to enter heaven," he said. Padre Pio agreed to do this. Padre Pio walked the man out, and then he "became fully aware of having spoken to a deceased person only when, going out to the churchyard, the man suddenly disappeared. I must confess that I re-entered the monastery somewhat frightened."

Padre Pio told the story to his superior who then went to the registry office. He indeed found the records of the man and cause of death exactly as the soul from purgatory said.

Padre Pio also encountered a young friar dusting the altar at dinner time. Padre Pio told the young friar to go and eat dinner, but the soul told him that "for disobedience I received the task to keep the main altar clean and orderly during my probation year. I was disrespectful many times to Jesus in the sacrament by passing in front of the altar without revering the Most Holy One in the tabernacle. For grave omission, I am still in purgatory. Now the Lord, in His infinite goodness, sends me to you so you can determine how much longer I must suffer in those flames of love. Help me."

Padre Pio told him to remain until morning. "You are cruel!" the soul shouted, then disappeared. "That wailing created a wound in my heart that I have felt and shall feel all my life," said Padre Pio. "I, who through divine delegation could have sent that soul to heaven, condemned him to remain another night in the flames of purgatory."

Pray and offer masses for deceased souls! More next week...

Parish Advent Project Benefiting
St. Agnes & St. Charles
Catholic Schools

Our Lady of Joy continues our tradition of providing Christmas gifts to the students at St. Agnes Catholic School in Phoenix and St. Charles Apache Mission School on the San Carlos Reservation. This marks our 17th year of support for St. Agnes students and the 23rd year of supporting students at St. Charles.

We will conduct a cash/check drive at all Masses on the weekends of Nov. 22-23 and 29-30. Envelopes may be returned to the collection basket or the parish office. Please write "Advent Project" on your check's Memo line.

The teachers will determine the wants and needs for their students at each grade level. For many of the children, these will be the only Christmas presents they receive. With your help, we will make this Christmas the best one yet for the students in these underserved communities!

For the week of November 9-15

The Sanctuary Candle has been sponsored in honor of Andy Dalool
 at the request of Chris Pallini

The Adoration Candle has been sponsored in memory of Marlene Brull
 at the request of Anonymous

May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen

Want to Join the Catholic Church or Receive a Sacrament?

Classes have begun for anyone wanting to become Catholic or receive Catholic sacraments (baptism, communion, confirmation). OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults) meets every Sunday from 12:30 pm to 2:30 pm in the Parish Hall.

If you are interested in joining, please reach out to Deacon Dan at deacondanaz@gmail.com.

BE A DOMINICAN!

Are you searching for deeper communion with Jesus and are inspired to follow in the footsteps of St. Dominic de Guzman, founder of the Order of Preachers? We warmly invite those who wish to respond to this call and align their deepest yearnings with the example and spirit of St. Dominic, through the intercession of Mary, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary.

Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one.

We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering.

You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

In today's Gospel, Jesus promises that if the temple is destroyed, He will raise it up again in three days. This is the true hope He offers.

When you give furniture, household items, clothing and items you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you give a sign of hope to your neighbors who have nothing.

MOVED, MARRIED OR HAD A BABY? NEW PHONE NUMBER? NEW EMAIL?

Stay in touch! We are happy to update your parish record with any recent life changes!
Just call the Parish Office at 480-488-2229.
